Dear Mr. Eib:

We are responding to your recent letter concerning cancellation of your registration with Selective Service.

Once a registration has been filed with the Selective Service System, the Military Selective Service Act contains no provision for withdrawing it.

The only Selective Service process now is that of registration. Once a man has registered his only obligation is to keep Selective Service notified of changes in his current address until he reaches age 26. At this time, we are not classifying registrants; that is, we are not determining whether they qualify for a deferment or exemption and whether they meet the physical, mental, and moral standards of acceptability for military service. We only make these determinations if we start inducting young men into the armed forces during a mobilization in a national emergency.

We hope this information is of assistance to you.

Sincerely,
